EXPERIENCE

Mason Marsteller joined Hughes Commercial Real Estate in 2018, following a position as a Data Analyst at a 3rd party logistics company where he helped LTL carriers save over $2.8 million annually. As a licensed real estate agent, Mason specializes in tenant representation, lease negotiations, land acquisition, and sales. He partners with Tommy Hughes to collectively bring over 20 years of real estate experience to work with his clients.

Mason earned a double major from the University of Alabama's honors college, in both finance and marketing, and he enjoys traveling, live music, and skiing.
